Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 34 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by McGowan (US 5,821,776).

McGowan discloses, in Fig. 1, a programmable device having programmable input/output circuitry (14) and programmable logic (16-1, 16-2) connected to receive incoming signals from and provide outgoing signals to the I/O circuitry, the programmable device comprising:

a first pad (30); and a programmable I/O circuit (PIC)(28-2, 32-1) associated with the first pad, wherein the PIC comprises:

a first output buffer (28-2; col. 7, lines 22+) adapted to present a first outgoing signal at the first pad; a first switch (32-1) connected between the first pad and the first output buffer to selectively present the first outgoing signal at the first pad;

a second output buffer (28-3; co. 7, lines 22+) adapted to present a second outgoing signal at the first pad; and a second switch (32-2) connected between the first pad and the second output buffer to selectively present the second outgoing signal at the first pad.
